ABOUT THIS DOCUMENT

Two Templates, Ready to Send

Working drafts, not final copy — swap in the bracketed fields before sending. First one logs the Day 1 touch in the Cold Outreach Sequencer; the second goes to Evry Intention and Reginald White directly.

1. Cold Outreach — Day 1 (First Touch)

Use this to log the Day 1 touch in the Cold Outreach Sequencer. Keep it short — the goal is a reply, not a full pitch.

Subject: Quick idea for [Company Name]

Hi [First Name],

I came across [Company Name] and [something specific — a recent launch, a post, a product, an event] caught my eye. We're Revital Productions — an AV production company based in Louisiana that specializes in marketing for brands on the rise, so we end up doing both the strategy/creative and the actual production (video, live events, brand campaigns) instead of handing that off to a third party.

We just wrapped work with [Evry Intention / Reginald White — swap in whichever case study fits the prospect] and the results were strong enough that I wanted to reach out directly rather than wait for a referral.

Would you be open to a quick 15-minute call to see if there's a fit? No pressure either way — happy to just send over a short portfolio piece if that's easier.

2. Referral Ask — Existing Portfolio Clients

Send to Evry Intention LLC and Reginald White individually — personalize per relationship so the tone matches how you actually talk to each of them.

Subject: Quick favor?

Hi [First Name],

Wanted to say again how much we enjoyed working on [project name/type] together — [something specific and true: a result, a moment during the project, a piece you're proud of]. It's exactly the kind of work we want to keep doing more of.

We're taking on a few new clients right now, and the best ones almost always come through people who've already seen our work firsthand. If anyone in your network — a friend, a business contact, someone you'd genuinely vouch for us to — could use help with [video / brand strategy / live events / marketing], we'd really appreciate the introduction. Happy to make it easy: a quick email intro is more than enough, we'll take it from there.

No pressure at all if nothing comes to mind right now — just wanted to ask while the work's still fresh.

Thanks again for trusting us with this one.

Optional add-on if a testimonial hasn't been collected yet for this client: a short closing line inviting them to leave a quote through the client portal works well here too, but that's handled separately by the Testimonial Tracker's request flow — keep this email focused on the referral ask so it doesn't read as two favors at once.
