Independent Contractor Agreement

Template for engaging freelance production/AV contractors on a project-by-project basis

ABOUT THIS DOCUMENT

Independent Contractor Agreement — Template

Not legal advice. This is a starting template — have an attorney review it before use, especially the independent-contractor classification language, which varies by state (some states, such as California, apply a strict test that can reclassify a contractor as an employee even with a signed agreement stating otherwise). Confirm this template fits your state's rules before sending it to anyone.

Field	Value
Effective Date	_____
Client	Revital Productions, admin@revitalproductions.com
Contractor (Name / Business)	_____
Contractor Address	_____
Contractor Email / Phone	_____

This Agreement is entered into between Revital Productions (“Client”) and the Contractor named above (“Contractor”) for the provision of freelance production/AV services on a project-by-project basis, as described below.

1. Scope of Engagement

Contractor will provide services as described in the Scope of Work / call sheet issued for each specific project (e.g., camera operation, audio engineering, lighting, or other production support). Each engagement is project-specific; this Agreement does not obligate Client to offer, or Contractor to accept, any particular volume or frequency of work.

2. Term

This Agreement begins on the Effective Date above and continues until terminated by either party as described in Section 10, or until all outstanding project engagements are completed, whichever is later.

3. Compensation & Payment Terms

- Rate: $_____ per [hour / day / project], as agreed per engagement.
- Invoicing: Contractor submits an invoice to contractors@revitalproductions.com within _____ days of project completion.
- Payment: due within _____ days of invoice receipt, via [method].
- Late cancellation / kill fee: if Client cancels a confirmed booking within _____ days of the event date, Client will pay a cancellation fee of _____% of the agreed rate.

4. Independent Contractor Status

Contractor is an independent contractor, not an employee, of Client. Contractor is responsible for their own taxes, including self-employment tax, and will receive a Form 1099 (not a W-2) for payments made under this Agreement, consistent with applicable law. Contractor is not entitled to employee benefits, and controls the manner and means by which services are performed, subject to the project's technical and scheduling requirements.

5. Equipment & Gear Responsibility

Any Client-owned equipment loaned to Contractor for a project (tracked via Client's gear-tracking system) must be checked out and returned in the condition provided, ordinary wear excepted. Contractor is responsible for any equipment lost or damaged due to Contractor's negligence while in Contractor's care. Contractor-owned equipment used on a project remains Contractor's property.

6. Insurance & Liability

Contractor confirms they carry — or will obtain before the first booking — their own general liability insurance appropriate to on-site production work. Contractor is responsible for their own equipment, tools, and any personal injury coverage. Client's insurance does not extend to Contractor unless separately agreed in writing.

7. Confidentiality

Contractor agrees to keep confidential any non-public information about Client, Client's clients, or project details encountered during the engagement, and will not use or disclose such information outside the scope of the project.

8. Indemnification

Each party agrees to be responsible for its own acts and omissions, and to indemnify the other against third-party claims arising from its own negligence or willful misconduct in connection with this Agreement.

9. Termination

Either party may terminate this Agreement, or any specific project engagement, with _____ days' written notice. Client will pay for all services satisfactorily performed up to the termination date.

10. Governing Law

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of _____, without regard to conflict-of-law principles.

11. Entire Agreement

This Agreement, together with any project-specific Scope of Work, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties regarding its subject matter and supersedes any prior discussions or agreements.
